Replacement Sheet

Appl. No. 09/551,746; Filed: Apr 18, 2000; Sheet 5 of 23
Dkt No. 2018.0010000; Group Art Unit: 2176
Inventors: FOULGER et al.; Tel. No.: 202-371-2600

The HTML Code:

<A HREF="http://sandbox.icplanet.com/test/pvg/maps/0009.map">
<IMG SRC="http://sandbox.icplanet.com/test/pvg/imgs/chart1.gif" border="0" ISMAP>

Select the blue text from the box above and copy it into your computer's clipboard. You do this by selecting the text with your mouse, going to the EDIT menu at the top of your browser window, and selecting the COPY option within the menu.

Inserting The HTML Code:

It is important that you paste blue and red code from above between the body tags of your web page.

Open your HTML Document in a text or HTML editor. Scroll through the HTML source and locate the body tag, <body ...>, near the top of the web page. Remember this position because you will want to insert your code below this point. Find the </body> in the last two lines of your web page. You will want to insert your code above this point.

Select an area between the two <body ...> and </body> tags and paste the lines from your computer's clipboard. To do this:

1. Position the cursor in your HTML document at the point where you want to insert the Search Form
2. Go to the EDIT menu at the top of your text edit window
3. Select the PASTE option within the menu.
